

REMEMBERING ARMENIANS IN VAN, TURKEY

This thesis is submitted to the Faculty of Art and Social Sciences in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

Master of Arts in Cultural Studies

by
Gözde Burcu Ege

Sabancı University
Fall 2011

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION	1
1.1.Outline of the Study	7
CHAPTER 2: HISTORY AND MEMORY IN VAN	11
2.1. From the Late Ottoman Period to the Establishment of the Turkish Republic	11
2.2. A Brief History of the Turkish Republic and its Relationship to its “Others”	15
2.3. The Past in the Present: The Role of Postmemory in Van	20
CHAPTER 3: METHODOLOGY	27
CHAPTER 4: REINTERPRETING AND REFRAMING TRANSMITTED MEMORIES OF ARMENIANS	32
4.1. Accepting a Perpetrator Identity within Victimization as the Line between the Past and the Present Blurs	32
4.2. “We began to understand their tragedy after we experienced our own”	43
4.3. “If we are the breakfast, then you will be the dinner”	48
4.4. Unfinished Business: Regarding the Loss of Others as Your Own and Strategies to Overcome the Loss	51
4.5. Interpretations on the Memories of the Elderly: Generation Gap or Political Subjectivity?	59
4.6. The Secrecy around Armenian Ancestors	64
4.7. The Remnants that Give No Rest	69
4.8. Perpetrators or victims?	82
CHAPTER 5: CONCLUSION	96
BIBLIOGRAPHY	104